Programming liability and indemnification agreement:

- a. Federal law provides that any person who transmits obscene programming or programming otherwise unprotected by the U.S. Constitution over cable systems may be fined or imprisoned. Moreover, program presenters may be subject to significant civil and/or criminal liability under federal, state, and local laws regarding libel, slander, obscenity incitement, invasion of privacy, copyright violation or violation of other similar laws. CAPS Radio and its members/disc jockeys/producers may not be used to present material which violates any federal, state or local laws.
- b. CAPS Radio may not produce or presentation commercial or advertising material designed to promote the sale of products or services or solicit funds for any activity. CAPS Radio and its members/disc jockeys/producers may not be used for the dissemination of any information, directly or indirectly, involving lotteries or games of chance as defined in Section 76.213 of the Rules of the Federal Communication Commission.
- c. The program presenter may be penalized, their programming removed from the airwaves or dismissed from producing, airing or providing programming for time determined by the station manager or executive committee.

I have read the requirements and regulations and attest that all the statements I have made are true to the best of my knowledge. I understand CAPS Media/CAPS Radio policies and programming liability and agree to be bound contractually to them.
